Open-Stock Dinnerware.

UR showing of Open-stock Dinnerware is more varied and desirable than ever before. Especially is this true of patterns at a moderate cost. Potters are accomplishing much these days, producing decorations on shapes at surprisingly small prices compared with Katherine Elkins, Miss Cecilla May, Miss those of a few years ago.

Undoubtedly our Dinnerware Section-which includes Cooking ried to-day to Mr. von Stumm, of the Ware as well—is well worth an inspection. It is educating.

Attention is asked to the Copenhagen pattern in English Porcelain William B. Hitt, Mr. Samuel Weldon, and the two families will be present. The Dinnerware which we carry in stock, both shape and decoration most desirable. Especially appropriate for summer service in town or country home.

BALTIMORE CONFERENCE ENDS

Surprise at Closing Session Caused by Presentation of a Memorial. Bishop Wilson Announces Full List of Church Assignments-Few Changes Made in Washington.

The surprise of the closing session of Baltimore Conference of the Southern Methodist Church, at Mount Vernon Place M. E. Church South yesterday, came in the presentation of a memorial appealing to the general conference of the church to enact such legislation as will hereafter prevent the appropriation of church funds for the benefit of educational institution of which they are not the owners.

Action was precipitated by a discussibetween C. M. Armstrong, trustee of the Randolph-Macon system, which anticlpates availing itself of the benefits of the Carnegie Foundation by declaring itself onsectarian, and Dr. Collins Denny. Previous discussion failed to make disposition of the subject and it was sup posed that action had been killed so far as the conference of 1910 was concerned The memorial was adopted with but few dissenting votes. This leaves the dispo sition of the matter to the general confer ence of the Southern Methodist Church, which meets at Asheville, N. C.

The memorial requests the conference o "take such steps as may be needed to obtain to our church all the educational institutions built up by the wisdom, toll and gifts of the church," and to settle beyond cavil, the ownership and control, brough boards of trustees, of educationa astitutions, so far as the law of the States will allow the church to own and control these institutions.

Clifton Forge Selected. As predicted in The Washington Herald. Clifton Forge, Va., was selected as the next meeting place for the Baltimore Conference s 59,797. There are 600 church buildings belonging to the conference, the property of which is valued at $2,048,313. For minsterial support $152,157 was raised during the year
